

Study Plan for Education

A. Table of Contents

1. GP Study Plan
2. GP Notes - Education
3. GP Issues - Progress Ladder: Raising social mobility
4. Comprehension - The Role Of Education
5. GCE A level Essay - Artificial Intelligence can replace the role of humans. Do you agree?
6. Model Essay - Science and Ethics should not mix. Discuss.
7. GP Learning Video - 'Many receive an education, but few are educated.' Discuss with references to situations in your society today.
8. GP Facts and Figures - Some significant information to help you with your examples on the topic of education

B. Learning Application

How to use our resources effectively?

- Read and Review
 - Read through our study plan and understand the main areas of study and resources available for your study as we have set a thematic coverage to give you a scope of knowledge on this issue. Examine the historical development, features and impacts of education.
- Reflect
 - When you read, reflect on how you can enrich your knowledge, develop better expression, develop causation and cultivate arguments. Cultivate the intellectual and inquisitive mind for learning.
- Practice
 - Practice the questions without looking at our answers and check through the answers and assess your errors. Learn how you can derive the requirements of the questions and how to structure and write to answer it.
- Expand
 - Develop the intellectual mind to expand your scope of learning by linking mass media to other related areas such as popular culture and politics. Understand what you learn from our latest development regarding Education.

C. Chapter Analysis

- Education Vs Schooling
 - Economic/social considerations
- Role of Education
 - Social Mobility, Address Inequality, Employment, Personal Empowerment...
- Relevancy of Education
 - Advent of technology
 - Changing requirements of workforce
- Characteristics of the Education System
 - Stressful
 - Competitive
 - Merit based

D. Suggested Readings

- Origins of the Modern Education System (Ties with the Industrial Revolution, parallels with factory settings and processes)
- Evolving Nature of Education (Rise of Home Based Learning HBL, Emergence of Massive Open Online Courses MOOCs)
- Sunrise and Sunset industries (new jobs created in the recent years eg. Youtuber, Influencer)