

- 1) people have the liberty to behave in ways which were thought as immoral
- 2) the quote suggest that women are capable of helping one another in the corporate world and society
- 3) the author imply that women are efficient learners and good at managing businesses
- 4) women would be more domestic, taking care of children and household chores
- 5) men are more ~~authoritative~~ authoritative while women are more accommodating towards others
- 6) the white collar economy has jobs that are more favourable for women as the job traits needed are possessed by women

- 1) people have the liberty to behave in ways which were thought as immoral
- 2) The phrase suggest that women are capable of helping one another in the corporate world and society
- 3) The author imply that women are efficient learners and good at managing businesses
- 4) women would be more domestic, taking care of children and household chores
- 5) men are more ~~more~~ authoritative while women are more accomodating towards others
- 6) the white collar economy has jobs that are more favourable for women as the job traits needed are possessed by women